Low Emission Development Strategies Global Partnership (LEDS GP)

A global secretariat coordinates the work program and a steering committee provides strategic direction to the Partnership.

Regional platforms organize and deliver cross-country learning, communities of practice, and technical collaboration.

Global working groups provide assistance, technical resources, and training to members in response to regional priorities.

Members exchange knowledge and experience with each other.

Members set priorities through regional platforms and feed back questions and requests to the Partnership.

Working groups

Energy

Transport

Regional platforms

Europe & Eurasia

Finance

Subnational integration

Latin America & Caribbean

Agriculture, forestry and other land use

Sustainable development impacts

Asia

Africa